

Mountain Top Historical Society

Presents

“Pack Your Palette”

A Series of Plein Air Painting and Hiking Expeditions
On the Trails of the Hudson River School of Art
▪Led by Artist Patti Ferrara▪

Dates: Wednesdays from July 11, 2007 – August 22, 2007

Time: 9:00 a.m.

Meeting Place: Mountain Top Historical Society’s Red Barn Gallery
Route 23A, Haines Falls NY

Proposed Sites:

July 11 – MTHS campus, Route 23A, Haines Falls, NY
July 18 – Catskill Mt. House site, North-South Lake, Haines Falls, NY
July 25 – South Lake Beach, North-South Lake, Haines Falls, NY
August 1 – North Lake Beach, North-South Lake, Haines Falls, NY
August 8 – Olana (Home of Frederic E. Church), Route 9G, Hudson, NY
August 15 – Loop One, Rangers’ Station, North-Sough Lake, Haines Falls, NY
August 22 – Mt. Top Arboretum, Route 23C, Tannersville, NY

All artists, accomplished and beginners alike, are welcome to join Patti in Plein Air (out-of-doors) painting from some of the area’s most remarkable vantage points. Stand where the Masters of the Hudson River School of Art once stood as they first captured young America’s natural wilderness on canvas.

Artists’ Notes

- Hikes are easy to moderate.
- Bring your own art supplies and a drop cloth for studio painting at the Red Barn Gallery in the event of rain.
- Bring water (both for drinking and for cleaning your supplies), lunch, and any other comforts needed to enjoy a day out-of-doors.
- Bring everything you carried in back out with you, and dispose of trash off-site.
- Participation in “Pack Your Palette” is free, however there is a $6.00 per day admission to North-South Lake. We can carpool.
- We will leave the meeting place promptly at 9:00 a.m. If you know where the site of the week is located, please join us at any time.
- You are responsible for your self and your materials...please be a smart and conscientious visitor to these beautiful locations.
- For more information, please call Patti Ferrara at (518) 678-9968 or visit the MTHS website at www.mths.org.

